

ST AGNES CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL COMPLAINTS POLICY

At St Agnes Catholic High School, we are committed to providing a happy, safe environment for all staff and students. There are occasions however, when a member of staff, a student, a parent or a member of the wider community can sometimes be concerned about something that is happening at our school that appears to be unsatisfactory or unreasonable.

Scope of the Policy

This policy provides a process for those employed by the CEO and those receiving services from the Catholic Education System to raise a complaint. This includes students, employees, parents, pastors and members of the wider community.

Complaints may relate to any practice or policy of St Agnes Catholic High School or of the Parramatta CEO related to the treatment of, or education of students. The Parramatta Catholic education system has some specific complaints processes. The Child Protection Kit has specific policies and procedures to address complaints of child abuse and reportable conduct. Maintaining Right Relations Policy and Procedures addresses complaints of harassment, bullying and discrimination. Nothing in this document replaces the processes outlined in these documents.

Underlying Principles

The Parramatta Catholic education system is committed to the following principles to ensure complaints are addressed appropriately:

- Complaints will be investigated in a fair and impartial manner.
- A person facing a complaint is entitled to know detailed information about the substance of the complaint and to have the opportunity to respond.
- Confidentiality will be observed.
- The complaints management process will be conducted in a manner that is respectful of all parties.
- Persons making a complaint will not be victimised.
- It is expected that complaints are made in good faith and are not vexatious or malicious.
- Complaints will be addressed in a timely manner and complainants will be advised if the matter cannot be finalised within one month.

Options available to persons with Complaints

All formal or informal complaints are to be put in writing using the Complaint Form.

Deal with the Situation Personally

- In less serious matters in which there is no risk of harm to any person, it may be preferable to discuss the issue of concern with the relevant person, to endeavour to reach an amicable resolution (unless this person is a child, in which case, it is usually more appropriate to contact the relevant teacher or member of the School Executive).

Contact the School

- A complainant may feel unable to approach the relevant employee of St Agnes directly or may not be satisfied with that person's response. The matter may be more serious in that the complainant believes that someone is at risk of harm. In such instances, the complainant may wish to contact the school. An inquiry at the school reception may be the first point of contact for people with complaints. The office staff will inquire about the general nature of the complaint, involving any member of the St Agnes community and refer it to the person designated to deal with the nature of the complaint. This person may be a Coordinator, the Assistant Principal or Principal.
- If the complaint is about a staff member and the matter is confidential, the complainant should inform the receptionist of this without mentioning the person's name and ask to be transferred to the appropriate member of the School Executive.

Contact the Catholic Education Office

- There may be occasions when a person wishes to take their concern directly to the Catholic Education Office. It may be they are not satisfied with the school's response or other legitimate reasons for not approaching the school directly, such as a conflict of interest.

- The Catholic Education Office has a community liaison line for taking general inquiries or concerns. The CEO Officer will take the complaint and refer it to the relevant CEO personnel. In some instances, the CEO Officer may advise that the complaint is more appropriately dealt with at the school level. In general, the CEO Officer will refer the complaint to the Area Administrator for the school involved.
- For matters concerning CEO staff, in the first instance the complaint would be taken to the person's immediate supervisor. If the complainant is not satisfied, they may address their concern to the Director of the relevant Department.

Intake Process

All school and Catholic Education Office personnel who are responsible for taking enquiries/complaints will complete a signed and dated Intake Form.

1. Record the complaint/enquiry by clearly recording the following information:
 - contact details of the complainant
 - nature of the matter including the details of the complaint (what is the matter, who is involved, when it happened, where it happened, any contextual information) and the resolution that is sought
 - any advice provided
 - any action taken including the referral of the complaint.
2. Assess how the complaint will be managed
 - The intake form is forwarded to the person responsible for assessing how the complaint is to be managed. In schools this is the Principal. In the Catholic Education Office in the first instance it will be the Head of School Service.
 - The assessment section of the Intake Form is completed to clarify how the complaint/enquiry will be managed.
3. Maintain accurate and confidential records
 - The Intake Form is filed in the school/CEO Complaints Register.
 - A copy of the Intake Form is forwarded to the person responsible for following up the complaint/enquiry.
 - In cases where an inquiry/investigation into the matter proceeds, a separate file is established or documentation is included in the relevant staff or student file.
 - The Intake Form identifies any relevant file that has been established or utilised in relation to the matter
 - When the enquiry is finalised/closed, this is noted on the Intake Form.

Addressing complaints

No further action will be taken when the complainant is satisfied with the explanation given at the time of making the complaint or enquiry except when the complaint refers to matters that must be investigated under Child Protection legislation.

Complaints assessed as relevant to a particular school or CEO procedure will be handled in accordance with the relevant procedure, for example student management procedures, child protection procedures, Maintaining Right Relations procedures, employee disciplinary procedures.

Complaints that do not relate to a particular school or CEO procedure will be addressed as follows:

- Record the complaint
- Clarify what resolution is sought
- Advise the person/s against whom the complaint has been made of the concern and provide them with the opportunity to respond.
- Obtain other relevant information e.g. from witnesses
- Resolve the matter

Appeal

A person who is not satisfied the matter has been resolved appropriately may choose to appeal to the Principal of the school if the Principal has not been involved in investigating or examining the complaint, or is not the person named as the source of the grievance.

Alternatively, an appeal may be made to the Head of School Service who may be contacted at the Catholic Education Office.

For Catholic Education Office matters an appeal may be made to the Head of the relevant department.

In the final instance an appeal may be made to the Executive Director of Schools.
